

Privacy policy

The Water Management Alliance (WMA) and its constituent Member Boards respect your privacy. Information automatically logged from visitors to our site helps us to monitor and improve our service to you as a visitor to our site. Personal information is not captured.

Any personal information that you may volunteer, by submitting e-mail or forms to our site may be collected.

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so. We may use your personal information to send you promotional information about third parties which we think you may find interesting if you tell us in writing that you wish this to happen.

You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the Data Protection Act 1998. A small fee will be payable. For further information please refer to our Data Protection Policy.
