Privacy policy

The Water Management Alliance (WMA) and its constituent Member Boards respect your privacy. Information automatically logged from visitors to our site helps us to monitor and improve our service to you as a visitor to our site. Personal information is not captured.

Personal information that you may volunteer, by submitting e-mail or forms to our site may be collected and may have to be disclosed by us in any Freedom of Information request.

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so. We may use your personal information to send you promotional information about third parties which we think you may find interesting if you do not wish this to happen please tell us in writing.

You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the Data Protection Act 2018 and the General Data Protection Regulation. A small fee may be payable; for further information please refer to our Data Protection Policy.

This privacy policy only applies to the Water Management Alliance web-site and doesn't cover other websites that we link to. These websites have their own terms and conditions of use and privacy policies. If you go to another website from this one, please read the privacy policy on that website to find out what it does with your information.
